

Picnic Lunch and Tour at Dickinson College's Organic Farm: On Sunday April 27th from 12:15 to 2:00 pm all UUCV Congregants and their children are invited to visit the recently established organic farm located along the Yellow Breeches River in Boiling Springs. Bring your own lunch and learn more about local, environmentally responsible farming practices. This is the final event in the Caring for the Earth RE series. If it rains we'll try to set an alternative date. No need to sign up or obtain permission to come! Driving instructions: From UUCV, turn RIGHT onto Walnut St. Follow Walnut out of Boiling Springs (as if heading to Mt Holly Springs). The Farm is less than 1 mile from B.S. It is the 2nd farm on the RIGHT, just before the Boiling Springs Animal Hospital. #553 Park Drive. Look for the barn that sits alongside the road. Please turn into the farm between the barn and corn crib and park in the area to your left behind the corn crib.
